ABOUT AMY KLIMEK STANSBURY

Amy oversees the operation of the clinical group programming and eating disorder group program at Timberline Knolls. An important aspect of her role is coordinating interdepartmentally with other team members to support the holistic experience for each individual receiving treatment.

Amy earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Sociology from the University of Illinois, and was awarded a Master's Degree in Counseling specializing in both community and school counseling from Lewis University in Romeoville, Ill. Amy is a member of the International Association of Eating Disorder Professionals (IAEDP) and is currently working toward her 200-hour yoga teacher training certification.

TIMBERLINE KNOLLS RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT CENTER

40 Timberline Drive | Lemont, Illinois 60439 | 1.877.257.9611 | www.timberlineknolls.com

Timberline Knolls is a residential treatment center located on 43 beautiful acres just outside Chicago, offering a nurturing environment of recovery for women ages 12 and older struggling to overcome eating disorders, substance abuse, mood disorders, trauma and co-occurring disorders. By serving with uncompromising care, relentless compassion and an unconditional joyful spirit, we help our residents help themselves in their recovery.
