

Portuguese Company EuroAtlantic Airways is repatriating citizens on several Continents

The euroAtlantic airways (EAA) airplane, with Portuguese registration Boeing B777-200ER (Triple Seven), completed a repatriation operation from Thailand to the United Kingdom, after a cruise company was forced to interrupt the cruise season schedule in Asia, due to the pandemic risks of the new Coronavirus, is now involved in a new repatriation operation for American citizens from the International 4 de Fevereiro Airport in Luanda (LAD), for the Intercontinental George Bush Airport (IAH) in Houston.

Covid-19 brings euroAtlantic requests from several countries around the world for repatriation flights euroAtlantic airways specialized on ACMI and Charter flights has received from “one of the most robust oil companies in the world” this award as a result of excellent operational capabilities, recognized by the world aviation market. Remember the Portuguese company euroAtlantic, was authorized (2015) by the Department of Transport (DOT) of the United States Federal Government (USA) to operate flights between European Union countries and the United States.

euroAtlantic airways has all its equipment of American origin registered with the National Civil Aviation Authority (ANAC) operating in 84.5% of the countries in the world. The euroAtlantic brand specializes in ACMI, Charter and regular air transport, has the mission of Anytime, Anywhere.

More information on www.euroatlantic.pt

For further information;

Caetano Pestana

Director of External Affairs
caetano.pestana@euroatlantic.pt

Lisbon, March 19th of 2020

