THANK YOU FROM OUR LEADERSHIP

BRUCE A. HARKEY
President & CEO

SANDY NESSING
2022 Board Chair

Dear Friends,

As a board and leadership team, we dubbed 2022 the year of Foundation and Future. All year, we thought about you, our community, and worked to provide the experiences that our community wants and deserves this year, next year, and for decades yet to come. With our goal of setting the Conservatory up for a strong future in mind, we invested in new technology systems, safety and DE&I training for our staff, investments in our personnel, intensive listening and visioning with our stakeholders and many other foundational projects.

Your support as members, donors, and advocates in the community made those projects possible on top of the beautiful horticultural experiences that we create everyday at the Conservatory. You also made those projects relevant. It is because of you, our guests, and our community that we strove for excellence, daily.

We hope you find great pride in the 2022 Annual Report and all we were able to accomplish together. 2022 brought new educational partnerships exposing thousands of children to fun and vital green industry ideas and STEAM discoveries. We set national benchmark highs for free and reduced-price Access opportunities. Cocktails at the Conservatory was revitalized and three evenings were sold out reaching a new and enlarged Greater Columbus audience. Pumpkins Aglow brought in record numbers of attendees and much more.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees and the Conservatory Leadership Team, we look forward to ensuring this historic hub continues to serve the community for decades to come—through all its changes and needs—with you. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Bruce Harkey, President & CEO and Sandy Nessing, Board Chair

HEALTHY FOOD ON THE NEAR EAST SIDE

Lucy and her little brother Lincoln were Veggie Champ MVPs at the Conservatory Farmers Market, which ran weekly from June through September. Lucy, Lincoln and hundreds of other kids who checked out the new children's interactive Veggie Champ booth got to try tasty fresh samples of snap peas, kohlrabi, cucamelon pickles and more.

Fun activities like a Market Scavenger Hunt, Eat a Rainbow Challenge and Grow Your Own Microgreens got kids excited for healthy eating. Veggie Bucks, a $2 voucher for kids to redeem at the market, let them select their very own produce from one of 28 vendors. Special thanks to market sponsors Discover, Franklin County Board of Commissioners and Osteopathic Heritage Foundations, who helped kids (and their parents) keep it fresh and fun, all summer long at the Farmers Market!

- 🌻 4,300+ total shoppers
- 🌻 28 VENDORS 20 of which were BIPOC or women-owned small businesses
- 🌻 OVER $10,000 in EBT, Produce Perks and WIC vouchers redeemed by low-income families at the market
- 🌻 $6,900 in WIC vouchers distributed at the market, supporting nutrition and access for low-income children and families

“We just love seeing all the green and all the fruits and veggies every week!”

- Lucy, 8 years old

CONSERVATORY FARMERS MARKET

TEEN CORPS

GROWING TOMORROW'S LEADERS

2022 marked the 6th year of Teen Corps, a high-impact summer internship that connects teens with nature and each other. Participating teens worked in a dedicated community garden plot in the Scotts Miracle-Gro Company Community Garden Campus, growing produce and selling it through their own stand at the Conservatory's Farmers Market.

The program also helped youth learn about the environment, health and nutrition, entrepreneurship, communication and teamwork, while paying a stipend to support their education and recognize their hard work.

🌻 19 TEENS from 13 Columbus-area schools grew and harvested 224 pounds of fresh produce throughout the summer.

🌻 AFTER THEIR TEEN CORPS EXPERIENCE, 89% of participants said that they understood how gardening supports a healthy lifestyle, and the cohort demonstrated big gains in healthy behaviors.

🌻 THE 2022 COHORT of Teen Corps graduates will join the 60+ alumni well on their way to becoming healthy, thriving adults.

“Teen Corps has helped me be more confident about being myself.”

- Teen Corps member

GARDENING IS FOR EVERYONE

Since 2001, Growing to Green has helped start, strengthen and sustain hundreds of community gardens and beautification projects throughout Columbus.

Each year, the program supports hundreds of gardeners at the Conservatory and in the community through education, site visits, consultation and distribution of Garden Grants and annual Harvest Awards.

Growing to Green is based in the Scotts Miracle-Gro Company Community Garden Campus, a 4-acre green space where visitors can freely explore culinary, herb and fragrance gardens, a bee apiary, a rose pavilion, a berry house and much more!

“When I see little kids helping water or plant something, my heart sings.”

- Abbie Sigmon, Garden Leader at International Harvest Garden and 2022 Growing to Green Community Garden of the Year Award Winner

🌻 40 community garden plots on-site help to improve access to fresh food and neighborhood connections.

🌻 40% of Conservatory community gardeners were nearby neighbors from 43203, 43205 and 43209 zip codes.

🌻 4 of our on-site plots are designed to be accessible for people with complex needs and were planted and maintained by local nonprofits and their clients.

🌻 8 Harvest Awards totalling $3,500 in prize money uplifted the work of community gardeners throughout the city.

🌻 $20,000 in Garden Grants were distributed to community gardens throughout Columbus in partnership with the The Columbus Foundation and Franklin County.

🌻 2,000+ pounds of free community- and Conservatory-grown produce were distributed through the Free Little Farmstand.

LEARNING IS IN OUR NATURE

LEARNING IS IN OUR NATURE

Franklin Park Conservatory and Botanical Gardens is where children, families and adults turn to learn about the natural world!

HEAD START DISCOVERY

HELPING YOUNG MINDS BLOOM

Touching autumn leaves, watching ice melt and burying seeds in cups of soil might seem like simple activities, but they powerfully illustrate fundamental understandings about nature and science for young children.

The Conservatory's partnership with Head Start, an early childhood education program for low-income families, continued for a second year in 2022 with support from PNC Grow up Great, Ohio Children's Foundation, and Columbus Kiwanis Foundation.

Three- to five-year-old children were treated to nature-based lessons facilitated by visiting Conservatory educators, engaging their five senses to help them learn counting, shapes, colors, and vocabulary, build critical thinking skills and strengthen an appreciation for nature that they can carry into Kindergarten and beyond.

- 🌻 10 Head Start center locations
- 🌻 20+ classrooms
- 🌻 400+ children reached through monthly spring and autumn site visits
- 🌻 2 fun hands-on field trips for children from each center

“All I’m doing is opening a little door. And hopefully when they go home tonight they will look at that tree in their yard.”

- Becky Schedler, Conservatory Early Childhood Educator

HARVESTING SUMMERTIME FUN

On any given Wednesday throughout the summer, children of all ages were busy trying new veggies and herbs, learning all about how plants grow and doing nature crafts and activities as part of the new Let's Grow Garden Club in the Scotts Miracle-Gro Foundation Children's Garden! Over 300 children took part, growing gardening memories to last a lifetime.

"We LOVE Garden Club! Freddie had so much fun when he came and his membership pin is proudly displayed on his backpack."

- Freddie's mom, Kelsie

The Conservatory had another excellent season in the Children's Garden, welcoming a total of 65,209 three- to twelve-year-old children for hands-on exploratory play, nature storytime, discovery station lessons, visits by special guest entertainers and the new Let's Grow Garden Club!

"I just wanted to let you know how much my 2-year-old daughter (and myself!) enjoyed Garden Club this month! We met friends every single week in September and were blown away each time!"

- Ellawyn's mom, Ashley

LET'S GROW GARDEN CLUB

COMMUNAL GARDEN CLASS SERIES

LEARNING, FOR ALL OF LIFE'S SEASONS

Here at the Conservatory, we believe gardening is for everyone! 2022 marked our first year of offering a free monthly Communal Garden class series, a way for adult gardeners and community garden leaders to build horticulture knowledge that they can use to grow something beautiful in their communities.

112 learners took classes covering gardening topics ranging from brassicas to garlic to seasonal planting tips and tricks!

This free class series is part of the larger Conservatory Growing to Green initiative that builds capacity and helps people grow their communities through gardening.

“Great class! I learned so much and I am very eager to start planning... and eating!”

- Greg T.

In addition to Communal Garden classes, a total of 286 adult classes with 2,170 participants helped people from all walks of life learn about gardening, fine arts, culinary skills and glass blowing in the Hot Shop.

PUTTING ARTISTS IN CONVERSATION

From June 25 through November 20, seven local Latinx artists displayed artwork that encouraged cross-cultural dialogue, touching on themes of dislocation, integration, identity and social history.

Diálogos was the second annual gallery installation highlighting the work of diverse local artists, following Resilience in Nature in 2021. Diálogos featured work in a variety of mediums and was curated by local artists Eglé Gatins and Elena Osterwalder. The show was made possible thanks to Lead Sponsor, Cardinal Health, with support from The Columbus Foundation, Greater Columbus Arts Council and Ohio Arts Council.

“This exhibit was a beautiful insight into the Latinx world. It’s so important to see art from every culture! Thank you for sharing your wonderful and magical art with us.”

- Diálogos Visitor

DIÁLOGOS EXHIBITION

TOPIARY TAKEOVER

TRANSPORTING VISITORS AROUND THE WORLD

From June through September, guests were immersed in a wild habitat in full bloom! Twenty-three animal topiaries were hand-built and grown by Conservatory horticulturists, representing UNESCO World Heritage Sites, places most in need of cultural and environmental preservation.

Visitors were transported around the world—from Australia’s Great Barrier Reef to the Great Plains—to visit with animals including camels, tigers and a majestic peacock. A little closer to home, visitors could meet and greet a larger-than-life cardinal, the Ohio state bird, or make a wish at the lucky pot o’ gold topiary!

The topiaries used live plants to mimic the textures of feathers, fur, scales and skin, and the experience was enhanced by educational interpretation at each site featuring a playlist of world music representing the animal’s country of origin. 2022 exhibition signage also included braille and audio tour, helping to create an experience that was more accessible for visitors of all abilities. This exhibit was made possible thanks to Lead Sponsor, The Davis Foundation.

- 🌿 OVER 8,000 individual plants were planted on the frames to create the display.
- 🌿 MORE THAN 1,000 HOURS of Conservatory staff time was spent creating and planting these topiary creatures.
- 🌿 TRAVELING TOPIARIES An extra group of Conservatory topiaries are rented each year to other museums nationwide. In 2022, our flamboyance of flamingos was on view in Los Angeles at the South Coast Botanic Gardens.

“This is one of my favorite places in Columbus, Ohio.”

- Imani W.

FIVE YEARS OF CONNECTING COLUMBUS

Research shows that there is a gap in accessibility to green spaces and nature, and families with more financial resources are more likely to visit cultural organizations like ours.

Since 2018, our monthly free Community Days have helped to change that, ensuring that the Conservatory is an accessible destination for any Franklin County resident who wants to immerse themselves in the natural world.

Community Day themed programming helped the Conservatory and our neighbors celebrate Global Recycling Day, National Gardening Week, Election Day and seasonal occasions like cherry blossoms in the springtime and wintertime holidays. More than 40 partnerships with diverse nonprofits, performing arts groups and businesses were strengthened through on-site Community Day programming, fostering a stronger sense of community for us all.

“I love the community days and knowing that my students can access such a beautiful and educational space.”

- Jordan B.

CONNECTING SUPPORTERS

2022 was a banner year for the Conservatory's signature mission-supporting fundraising events. In May, the Conservatory hosted the 21st annual Les Chapeaux dans le Jardin, or Hat Day. The event, planned under the leadership of co-chairs Tina Skestos & Thomas F. Havens, smashed fundraising records and netted over $500,000 in revenue. During the event, the 2022 Ann Isaly Wolfe award was presented to long-time friend of the Conservatory, DeeDee Glimcher.

In June, more than 350 guests gathered for Bash at the Barn. This marked the 18th and final year of Bash, raising $93,000 to help the community make meaningful, lifelong connections to nature through our horticulture, education and outreach initiatives.

In August, the Conservatory Women's Board and Field to Table committee, under the leadership of co-chairs Joan Kirschner and Barbara Brakemeyer Elliott, presented Field To Table. This beautiful farm-to-table dinner under the stars drew more than 700 community and corporate leaders and netted a record-breaking $410,000 to benefit the Conservatory's community outreach and education initiatives.

“We are beyond grateful to the many individuals, corporate sponsors and volunteer fundraisers who make our events possible.

Because of their investment, we can continue to strengthen initiatives that ensure the Conservatory is an accessible and welcoming space for all.”

- Bruce Harkey, President & CEO

VOLUNTEERS

BILL WELLS

Bill Wells (1961-2022) was a long-time friend of the Conservatory and served as a dedicated board member for many years. Bill was passionate about giving back to the community and generously supported numerous organizations through his work as the Chairman and President of The Davis Foundation in partnership with his loving wife Jackie. The addition of The Wells Barn was made possible through their support and was dedicated in honor of the Wells Ffamily on October 27, 2015.

Bill was a founding committee member of the Conservatory's Scotch & Cigars fundraiser in 2005, which evolved and grew over 18 successive years into Bash at the Barn, celebrating its final year in 2022. Bill contributed generously to the Conservatory mission throughout his many years of involvement, leaving a lasting and remarkable legacy for which the Conservatory will always be grateful.
