

Ad hoc announcement: Profit expectation for the first half year 2016

Interroll expects strong sales and over proportional net profit growth in the first half of 2016

Sant'Antonino, Switzerland, 11 July 2016. The Interroll Group managed to build on to its strong business year 2015 and started the current financial year with significant growth on all continents and in all product groups. The company expects a strong sales growth of about 9 percent and an over proportional net profit growth in the range of 10-15 percent for the first half of 2016.

Increased activities in the Americas and Asia-Pacific regions, successful launches of new innovative products, stringent cost management and the systematic exploitation of the global potential for high quality internal logistics solutions have all boosted the business in the first half of 2016.

Interroll will publish its complete Half Year Report 2016 on 5 August 2016 at 06:30 hrs. CEST. A web cast in English on the Half Year Results 2016 will be offered at 10:00 hrs. CEST the same day.

Interroll Holding AG in Sant'Antonino, Switzerland expects strong sales and over proportional net profit growth in the first half of 2016.
