'Free Market' in Macroom

Muriel Shops Local – a fascinating mural in the Council Car Park at Railway View, Macroom ©Ted Hallahan

Three students from Cork Centre of Architecture Education exhibited models and explained plans for their ideal revitalisation of areas in Macroom town centre during the recent Free Market exhibition. One student chose St. Colman's Church of Ireland, Castle Street and adjoining lanes for his dream development of a concert venue leading to off street, after theatre restaurants/ bars. Another planned for the development of apartment buildings in the green area behind the Mall in Sleaven and the third dream was the restoration of the upper floors of business premises as living quarters for the owners or the development of flats to let. The students were ideally planning for a population explosion in Macroom when/ if the bypass becomes a reality. They argued that young, highly educated graduates might live and work in a Macroom that facilitated on line businesses through the provision of a business hub with world class broadband and technological infrastructure. This would make commuting with Cork, Mahon, Little Island etc. unnecessary. While the students didn't take potential problems into consideration, the concept opened our minds to what might be possible if we wish to bring life back to the town core.

Swiftwatch in Macroom

Members of Macroom Tidy Towns and Birdwatch Ireland in search for swifts at Fitzgerald St., Macroom ©John Lyons

Members of Macroom Tidy Towns joined with members of Birdwatch Ireland recently in a search for swifts and to identify where they might be residing. It was a most interesting talk and walkabout, beginning inside the Castle Gates, and ending up in Golden's for a chat and shelter from the rain. Paul Hadland from the West Cork Branch explained about the birds, their decline in numbers and the reasons for this, with loss of nesting sites being a primary one. As the group assembled, a swift was seen to nest in the apex of the nearby AIB building. There are no visible nests as these enter small holes under roofs generally. Then on to the De La Salle schoolyard and again, there are swifts in residence here. From there the audience proceeded to Fitzgerald Street where groups of swifts were to be seen flying about over the old Bus Éireann Buildings where again they are nesting. Macroom Tidy Towns are currently engaged with IRD Duhallow in a European Project to erect a Swift Tower with 28 nesting sites and have got approval from Macroom Marts for the tower to be erected on their property. Work has commenced on this and further information will follow.

Vera O'Riordan of MacEgan Rangers on a recent voyage on a Tall Ship ©

Macroom Guides

Vera O'Riordan of MacEgan Rangers, Macroom was selected to take part in the Tall Ships voyage representing the Irish Girl Guides (IGG) along with Helen Moriarty, a Guide Leader from Bandon. Both agree that the Tall Ships voyage was one of the most exciting events they have ever been involved with through IGG and loved meeting young people from other youth organizations such as Youth Reach, Sea Scouts and youth organisations based in Liverpool. On the voyage, there were 20 young people between the ages of 18 and 30 and a crew of 20 volunteers and crew members, including a chef. Each bunk had six beds in it and everyone ate together in the main rest area called the 'mess'. During the day everyone helped out on deck, adjusting the sails by climbing the masts with harnesses (scary, but amazing!), monitoring the direction and steering the ship. Vera and the others were organised into groups called Watches, which were rotated for monitoring the ship through the night. It was really exciting sailing at 2am in the morning! On day 3, they had a break and spent the day on the Isle of Man. It was fab, chilling out on the beach and relaxing in the local bar while the ship was docked nearby. By day 5, they reached Liverpool and had become close friends with both the participants and the crew members. The Tall Ship requires an open mind and a willingness to get stuck into work, just like any Girl Guide would at camp. A lot of the rotas and work ethic from Guide camp translates really well to getting the full benefit of the Tall Ship's Voyage, so a love of camping will ensure that one will enjoy the busyness of sailing on a Tall Ship for sure! Do remember to pack sea sickness tablets and something for nausea - very handy on the first day when setting sail!

The young participants have kept in touch since the trip ended and have planned a reunion, scuba diving in Dublin. Irish Girl Guides offer a number of its members the chance to avail of a Tall Ships Voyage each year. Vera is the fourth member of MacEgan Rangers to have had this opportunity.

Macroom Flower Club

Macroom Flower & Garden Club Annual Outing took place June 29th, visiting gardens in the Waterford region. The first stop was to a waterfront, period house, set on beautiful, well-tended gardens overlooking the Blackwater estuary. On arrival, we were greeted by the owners. Morning coffee was enjoyed indoors as light rain had dampened the occasion to sit outdoors. Following refreshments, we were invited to view the garden, full of Summer colour in the morning sunshine. Members enjoyed a leisurely stroll, good gardening advice and departed with some plant slips which we hope to see flourish in our gardens next year. The lunchtime stop was at Mount Congreve Estate & Gardens at Kilmeaden. The private guided tour was booked for 1.30p.m., allowing time for a relaxing light lunch at The Dairy café, served by pleasant staff. The plant sales area was visited and purchases made. The 4 acre walled garden was full of colour as we proceeded on our tour of this amazing garden. The final stop was in Waterford city for evening Dinner, which completed a fabulous day. All arrived safely back to Macroom, our thanks to McCarthy Coaches and to the bus driver who was most attentive and made sure all our purchases of plants reached Macroom intact. The next Club meeting at Coolcower House is on Thursday, September 12th for a Floral Demonstration with Helen Cusack AOIFA. National Flower Festival entitled "Splendour in Flowers & Stone" will take place, 27th to 29th September at St. Colman's Cathedral, Cobh.

Final Liz Lucey Run

This year, we celebrated the 10th Annual Liz Lucey Memorial Run in Inchigeela on July 14th. It began 10 years ago when unfortunately, Liz Lucey, a 31 year old Inchigeela girl, passed away from ovarian cancer. A group of Liz's friends decided to run an event in her name in the Mills Inn in Ballyvourney. Owing to its success, it was then brought to Liz's homeplace, Inchigeela, where it continued for a further 9 years and raising in excess of €140,000. Each year people came from far and wide to support this great cause. Marymount Hospice provided great help and support to the Lucey family in their time of need. Similarly, Marymount helps many people in the local area and this contributes hugely to the fundraiser's success on a yearly basis. This year, after first count, a massive €16,000 has been raised. However, the final figure will be announced at our upcoming presentation night (date to be confirmed). This event would not have been possible without the kind sponsorship of many businesses both locally and nationally. Year on year, they kindly came on board to provide food, advertising, hall decorations and raffle prizes, which helped keep running costs to a minimum. Similarly, the effort of the volunteers who helped out on the day to sell raffle tickets, serve tea, provide catering and the stewards, ensure the smooth running of the event each year. Many of these helpers were there from early morning till late evening and without them, the event couldn't run as efficiently as it did. Local organisations such as the GAA, Valley Wheelers and Inchigeela Hall provided invaluable support to the running of the event. The Liz Lucey fundraiser included a variety of activities, including a tractor run, vintage cars, walking and cycling. Over the years, we have had a mix of old and new vehicles, which added variety and interest to the day's events. In 2019, we had 60 cars and 90 tractors, a phenomenal entry. Furthermore, our cycle this year was the biggest ever, with 72 cyclists taking part. The walk, an ever popular event, had in excess of 160 participants this year, which ensured the roads of Inchigeela were bustling. The Liz Lucey Memorial has really become a community affair and is one that has brought the parish of Uíbh Laoire together. It embodies community spirit and promotes the strengthening of bonds between different organisations. Having fun and craic is what it promoted and it offered a chance for neighbours to meet up and have the cuppa and a chat while, at the same time, supporting a great cause. We feel that this would be very much in accordance with Liz's wishes. While this has been declared the final Liz Lucey Memorial Run, we hope that some other group will come on board to organise another event that will continue to tap in to the good will, kindness and generosity typical of the area. By Tracey Cronin.

Donoughmore Carnival

The parishioners of Donoughmore enjoyed a wonderful weekend of 50th Carnival celebrations. It started Thursday 18th with the official opening by Minister of Agriculture Michael Creed, who congratulated the parish on the long tradition of the carnival and the community spirit which is evident in Donoughmore. Maurice Brew was MC on the night and gave a detailed history of the carnival; Mary Wallace, Community Council Chairperson, thanked the volunteers past and present that continue to work for our parish. Cllr Michael Looney, representing the County Lord Mayor, recounted his carnival memories with pride. Present also were Cllr Eileen Lynch, Cllr Martin Coughlan and Aindrias Moynihan TD. A warm welcome was extended to Canon Harrington who sowed the seed of a Carnival by getting a group together 50 years ago. Presentations were made to Canon Harrington, Noreen O'Regan, 1st Treasurer and Noreen Corkery, 1st Secretary. A great evening of chat, laughter, trips down memory lane helped along with the carnival memorabilia on display continued in to the night, helped along by the refreshments served by the catering committee. On the pitch that night our young people continued the tradition of the Fancy Dress, led on this auspicious occasion by Ballingearry Pipe Band; there were giant board games and a fantastic obstacle course to entertain the kids. Friday and Saturday night saw the revival of inter townland skittle and wellington throwing competitions. The Car Treasurer hunt had 15 entries. The Teddy Daly Memorial Soccer match provided an entertaining game attended by Noreen and the Daly Family. Carnival Bingo saw the very popular local man, Denny Lyons, win the Jackpot game to tremendous applause. Ladies football is a long standing tradition at the carnival and this year the U 10s girls donned their jersey and held inter club blitz. Saturday night, in a packed community hall, patrons were entertained first by local musicians, Joseph Twomey, Maeve Barrett, Leah Buckley, Oisín and Saoirse Sheehan, followed by Sean Keane. The concert was a huge success. Thank you to Shane Healy on sound, the organisers and you who supported the event. Sunday we awoke to drizzly wet conditions but as they say, 'the show must go on' and it did with All Ireland Tug of War competitions led in by a sole piper. Winners on the day were 640kg Championship G&B Gold Castlegregory; Silver Mulcair; Bronze 680kg Open G & B Gold Castlegregory, Silver Donoughmore Bronze. Thank you to all who braved the weather and supported events on the pitch, MuskerryMacra Craft Competitions, Donoughmore Macra, Donoughmore Vintage Club, Vincent Casey with Sheaf Tossing, local Scouts & Beavers. Colm O'Regan was a huge hit in the Tea Tent with fans queuing to get a signing and photos and then enjoying a reading from his latest book,

Sean Keane joined local singers and musicians, Joseph Twomey, Maeve Barrett, Leah Buckley, Saoirse and Oisín Sheehan, at concert to mark Donoughmore's 50th carnival. ©Lee Valley Outlook

'Ann Devine Ready for her close-up'. Colm and the rain very nearly brought the marquee down! The Wellness Tent was a new addition. Thank you to Catherine Hassett, Claire, Sue from Ballincollig Wellness Centre, Mary Bruton, Lorraine and Martina Kelleher who were delighted with the genuine interest in their therapies and treatments. To the local Art Group who displayed their amazing work, thank you. Classes resume in September in Firmount Old School.

In the complex, indoor bowls provided hours of testing your skill and gave the public the opportunity to have a go, while the baby show was well attended. The carnival memorabilia was on display and thank you to Vincent Casey who provided us with DVDs footage of past carnivals. The wet weather was damp but did not dampen the carnival spirit. Thank you to all who braved the elements and supported the events.

Sunday night the St. John Forde Match was won this year by the U12 girls and the cup was presented by Gerard Forde. The BBQ saw the 2 marquees full and music by The Rogues provided great entertainment as good a show as any 'Ant & Dec' duo. The Carnival Draw was held and then Mary Wallace, Chairperson counted in the Fireworks Display, which was a fantastic finish to the 50th Carnival. Thank you to all who volunteered and those who supported the Carnival.

G.A.A. NEWS: Hard luck to these great bunch of lads, who showed a great fight back spirit last Sunday evening in Kilmurry in the Junior A Championship but sadly came out on the wrong side, losing by the last kick of the game First half was an even encounter with 3 points apiece at half time , low scoring but weather didn't help. Aghinagh pulled away in the second half and led by 8 points at one stage but Clondrohid dug deep and pulled off some great points and got the all important goals and were leading by 2 points with the game practically up .Late in injury time Aghinagh got a free and managed to get a goal to win by the narrowest of margins. Final score Clondrohid 2.09 Aghinagh 2.10 Well done to all involved.

There is a lot of interest in the Summer Arts children's workshops detailed above, so if you are interested, please register without delay. The themes for the workshops are: painted sun-catchers, mindfulness colouring craft and decorated fairy money boxes. You can choose whichever workshop interests you the most or you can register for two or for all three. The Summer Stars Adventure has received great support in Ballyvourney Library and last year's registration numbers have already been exceeded. It's wonderful to see so many children choosing their books, requesting favourite authors and series and stocking up on books to take on holidays. I have no doubt that the reading skills of all involved will have no chance of getting rusty during the school holidays. If you have already completed a reading progress card, you can return it to the library and collect a new one. At the end of the summer, everyone gets a lovely certificate and there are some prizes too! If you haven't registered yet there is still time, just drop in to the library and sign up to get your reading progress card and bookmark. If you are not a library member it is very easy to join up. Visit the library with a parent or guardian and fill out a registration card, your library membership card can be issued immediately and you can register for Summer Stars at the same time.

While the children are busy choosing books and registering for the above, there is plenty to occupy the adults accompanying them. Ballyvourney Library has a wide variety of fiction novels covering all genres. There is also a comprehensive non-fiction collection encompassing the Healthy Ireland at your Library national initiative and the Work Matters Programme suggested titles. Free WiFi is available and there is a computer with internet facilities for public use, as well as printing and copying facilities. A separate computer is available for you to explore our online services, check the catalogue or order books. With the exception of a small charge for printing/copying, all the facilities are free for members and as membership is free, it makes sense to join your local library. I look forward to welcoming new members to Ballyvourney Library and if you were a member in the past and still have your membership card, please bring it with you when updating your membership.

History A Hidden Gem in Crookstown

St. Helen's churchyard, Moviddy, has been hidden from the local population in Crookstown and apart from it being a mixed graveyard, little was known about the churchyard and its history. The first mention of a Protestant presence in Moviddy goes back to 1591 where a Nicholas O'Flynn is listed as vicar of Moviddy. The graveyard itself gives us an insight into the historical development of the village through the people buried there. You may not be aware that St. Helen's had a connection to Robert Falcon Scott's 'Terra Nova' expedition of 1910 in Antarctica, the same one Tom Crean was involved in. In fact one of Crookstown's own took part. This gentleman was Robert Forde, who was baptised in St. Helen's in 1875. In January 1911, Forde and his companions had the responsibility of examining the area around Ross Island ice shelf. By March 1912, Forde was suffering so badly from frostbite that he was ordered to the Terra Nova by Captain Scott. He is remembered by the naming of Mount Forde, a monumental peak of over 1,200 metres in Antarctica, in his honour.

There are a number of interesting burials in Moviddy including its longest serving rector, Hume Babington. He was Rector of Moviddy for 53 years, died on the 23rd of January, 1886, aged 81 years. This is inscribed on his tomb. Hume was a very forward thinking individual; he was part of a new wave of idealism in the 1800's towards non-denominational education in Ireland. The Crooks from which Crookstown derived its name, are also buried here. Thomas Crooke, married Ellen, daughter of Tieghe Mac Dermot MacCarthy (Lord of Muskerry). He built a large fortified house, with a fish tank on its roof at Crookstown! Crooks lived in Incharahilly in 1751, a mile west of Ryecourt. About this time Inshirahill became known as Crookstown. The mother of Robert Warren, 1st Baronet, (Warrenscourt), was Anne Crook.

Did you know that because of the Herrick family, British tourists flocked to Crookstown to take part in a specialised hunt? John Herrick, Crookstown, was secretary of the Muskerry Hunt. He died in 1924 and is buried in St. Helen's. He formed the Bellmount Beagles, a pack of rare dogs called 'weasel hounds'. This unusual form of tourism was highlighted in the Highland light infantry chronicle circa 1910. "Great consternation in the orderly room was caused and a record created in the leave book by two officers applying for leave for the purposes of weasel hunting. In the Muskerry country and owned by the secretary of the fox hunt, is a pack of small beagles who, during summer and autumn months, hunt stoats." A roofless mausoleum to the East of the church contains a classical wall plaque dated 1719. This is the Bailey vault. As a result of the 1641 rebellion, Dundrinan castle (Castlemore) and lands were forfeit by Phelim Owen McCarthy and by the late 1600s, the castle became the residence of John Bailey (buried in the Bailey vault in Moviddy cemetery, Crookstown). Colonel Rye married the daughter and heiress of Mr Bailey and acceded her lands at Castlemore. The inscription in the vault, now faded, reads "This monument was erected by Mrs. Anne Bailey, widow of John Bailey of Castlemore, Esq., who died the 15th of June 1719. He was a gentleman who always had a true interest of his country at heart. At the revolution, he served in person in the wars of Ireland till the kingdom was reduced to peace and quietness. Then quitting the wars, he returned to his wife and children and shewed himself as good an husband, as indulgent a father, and he was a true subject. Being honoured with the commission of the peace, he always administered justice so uprightly that he never blemished his commission and died lamented by all good men who knew him". By Louise Daly

Sport in Macroom 1900-2000

Have you some hidden nuggets of information?

Sport is all around us – presently on television we are enthralled by the inter-county Hurling, Football, Camogie and Ladies Football championship series while the Ladies' Soccer World Cup was extensively covered on all outlets. Mallow man James Sugrue, with the aid of drinking six pints of milk daily, is an instant star, having become the British Amateur Close Champion.

Macroom is a sports-mad town and has been for over a hundred years. Testament to this is the plethora of sports clubs in the town which range from GAA to soccer, golf to basketball, darts to road-bowling, equestrian to dog sports, handball and racketball, hurling and camogie (once in Macroom) now at Laochra Óg, rings and pool, athletics and road-running, karate and angling, table tennis and more. In the past, we have had pitch-and-putt and boxing clubs, hockey, cricket and rugby clubs, billiards and snooker in the Young Men's Hall and probably more than I can recall or name. Pitch-and-toss might even qualify.

Sports have added excitement to many of our lives and have immeasurably enriched our sometimes humdrum existence over the years. Think of being part of a winning county football team or winning a bowling score or capturing a Captain's prize in golf or pitch-and-putt or coming first or just finishing the Daniel Kingston Memorial race. Barry O'Brien's History of Macroom G.A.A. Club 1886-1987 is a marvellous record of the club's activities. Denis Paul Ring's Macroom Through the Mists of Time is another wonderful source of sporting (and much other) information about the town.

Sports history has become academically respectable over the past thirty years or so and there are many brilliant sports history books, such as Paul Rouse's Ireland & Sport A History and The Hurlers, Liam O'Callaghan's Munster Rugby, Marcus De Búrca' The GAA A History and Macrompian Prof. John A Murphy's Where Finbarr Played, a history of sport in U.C.C., 1911- 2011.

I am currently trying to research the rich history of sport in all its forms in Macroom in the twentieth century, including sport in our schools. Minute books, photos, paper-clippings, mementos and memorabilia, letters, accounts and recollections from all periods would be very welcome. Information on the way the town was at various times would also be very welcome, the effect of emigration on teams, the presence or absence of women's participation/teams and so on. Any material loaned will be carefully minded and returned.

Introduction. Since the Gaelic Athletic Association's (G.A.A.) foundation in 1884 in Hayes's Hotel, Thurles, G.A.A. games have arguably been the most popular played in Macroom, and this is certainly true of the twentieth century. Over that period, (male) Gaelic Football has predominated with Hurling teams entered intermittently. Rounders is the least known GAA game, and it was rarely, perhaps never, played competitively in Macroom. Handball is also a G.A.A. sport but, in Macroom, has an existence that is parallel to the G.A.A. Club's general activity. Thankfully, the Handball (and Racketball) Club is functioning and thriving. The Ladies' Gaelic Football Association (LGFA) was founded in 1974. Currently Macroom Ladies' Gaelic Football Club is very vigorous and competes at Junior and under-age levels and boasts several inter-county players. Camogie was and is played in Macroom, but mostly, in St Mary's. However, there were previous iterations of a Macroom Camogie club which fielded teams. The first was in 1917, the second in the 1930s, the third in the 1940s and the last, very briefly, was in the 1960s. Laochra Óg, a hurling and camogie club, has a pitch in Teerbeg, just outside the town, locally keeps the camogie flag flying, has underage teams, is progressing very well indeed and has players from Macroom as well as from Clondrohid, Kilnamartyra and Ballyvourney. Some – Laochra players - Róisín Murphy and Brian Healy - have represented Cork. This chapter discusses the origin of camogie, past Macroom and other local camogie teams.

How Camogie Began. The Camogie Association was founded in 1904, forty years after the GAA was formed and when women's life expectancy was forty eight years (currently c. 84) (1). Then a woman's role was seen as primarily in the home, and related to motherhood and home-keeping. Indeed it was believed that over vigorous activity damaged a woman's ability to procreate. In the late nineteenth century, advances in women's education saw more girls attending secondary school and progressing to third-level colleges. Coinciding with this was the Gaelic Revival which was driven by and found expression through the Gaelic Athletic Association (1884) and the Gaelic League (1893). The G.A.A. codified (and Davin more or less 'created' Gaelic Football) Irish games, just as the English had done with rugby, association football (soccer), hockey and other games. Women were first admitted to the Civil Service in the early 1890s and many came from the country, bringing with them their nationalist views and pastimes. The Gaelic League clubs / branches were natural 'homes' for these girls and women. The first camogie club arose from the Keating Branch of the Gaelic League, North Frederick St., Dublin. In 1903, branch members Máire Ní Chinnéide, Seán Ó Ceallaigh, Seamas Ó Bráonain and Tadhg O'Donoghue, drew up the first set of rules for a 'modified' ladies' hurling. O'Donoghue, originally from Carrignavar, was an Irish scholar and later Professor of Irish in U.C.C., and coined the term 'Camóguidheacht', roughly translated as 'junior hurling' and the word later contracted to 'camogie' (2). Cork's first club, 'Fáinne an Lae', was founded in 1905 in the Blarney Street area (3). Later, some members went to live in Blackpool and formed another camogie club, 'Clann na nGael', in Blackpool. Later again, The Glen Rovers' Camogie Club was also based in Blackpool.

Macroom Camogie The first reference to camogie in Macroom comes from the Cork Examiner, 25 August 1913. In the article, the writer described the small size of the Macroom pitch and refers to a recent Macroom v. Kerry football match! Also on the programme were a hurling contest between Cloughduv and Redmond's and Cork, in darker uniforms, led by Kate Dunlea, and Louth, headed by Rose Quigley parade before the 1934 All-Ireland final at Croke Park.

a camogie game, a novelty in Macroom, featuring Redmond's versus Blackrock. The anonymous reporter goes on to write that the 'local ladies are quite sympathetic, and have even organised a team which promises to become known more widely in the near future' (4).

Barry O'Brien's Macroom G.A.A. Club History 1886-1987 references a camogie team in Macroom in 1917 and it was called the Art Ó Laoghaire Camogie Club (5). Unfortunately, I was unable to find any evidence of their activities or games. {Ó Laoghaire was killed in an ambush in Carriganima in 1773 when just 26 years old. He lived in Raleigh House, west of Macroom and he had been involved in a dispute with Abraham Morris(on), Hanover Hall, an English land-owner and magistrate, over a horse. Morrison wanted Art's horse and offered £5 pounds; because of the Penal Laws, Ó Laoghaire should have sold but refused. He was subsequently declared an outlaw and was 'judicially' shot and killed. Art's wife, Eibhlín Dubh Ní Chonaill, aunt of Daniel O'Connell, the Liberator, wrote Caoineadh Airt Uí Laoghaire, a lament acclaimed as one of the finest in European literature} (6).

Macroom GAA Club History also carries a picture of a 1930s Macroom Camogie team - see photo (7). The Cork Examiner excerpt of 20 May 1933 (below) is quite interesting from a number of points of view (8). Firstly, the game was played in the Castle Park; it was possibly played in the Town Park, or the western side of the Sullane, now the Tom Creedon Park? Nora (Norrie, later Mrs Barrett) and Mary (later Mrs Browne) O'Callaghan were from Main Street and sisters of Denis (shoemaker) and Jackie. J. Neville was Judy Neville and later Mrs

Barry, Barrett Place. During 1933 Macroom beat Hillside (Douglas) in May, and both Enniskeane, and St. Olan's, 6-0 to 0-0, in Nov. but lost to U.C.C. in Dec.

Cork Examiner 24 May 1933 p 13

The Southern Star, December 1933, carried an interesting advertisement which featured Macroom playing Muskerry Maids in a Camogie Cup Final in Clonakilty.

Young people please note the 'All-Night' dance; young people of the 1930s also enjoyed themselves.

National Heritage Week

National Heritage Week runs from Saturday 17th to Sunday 25th August. Over 130 events have so far been registered for the County of Cork. The Events Programme will be available in August, just prior to Heritage Week, and details of events can be uploaded to www.heritageweek.ie. The Theme for Heritage Week 2019 is 'Pastimes and Past Times', encouraging people to take a stroll through our local history and explore how our free time has evolved in often fascinating ways, from sports and storytelling to music and craft. Heritage Week is coordinated by the Heritage Council and is part of European Heritage Days which promotes Europe's cultural heritage across the Union – a week very much to look forward to.

Aghinagh are through to the Cork county U21 C football final after a fine win over East Cork champions Bride Rovers at Ballinora. Aghinagh opened well with a goal from Con Buckley in the 2nd minute and when Liam Twohig added three points they led by 1-3 to 0-1 after the first quarter. A goal for Bride Rovers in the 18th minute gave the East Cork side a boost and when Aghinagh replied with a point apiece from Micheál Horgan and Tadgh Sheehan, Bride matched them with two points to leave it at 1-5 to 1-3 after 26 minutes. Liam Twohig then had another point from play to which Bride responded with a late point to leave Aghinagh leading by 1-6 to 1-4 at the break after a very even first half.

The sides were neck and neck again for almost all the second half. Points from Liam Twohig and Con Buckley had Aghinagh four clear in the 43rd minute, Bride then scored two, 1-8 to 1-6 in the 50th minute. Sean O'Riordan and Shane Corkery fired over a point apiece, Bride again replied with two points to leave only a two point gap between the sides with five minutes remaining and it was still anyone's game. A goal from Liam Twohig in the 57th minute finally broke the Bride Rovers challenge and a late point from a free was to be their only consolation.

Aghinagh scorers: Liam Twohig 1-5 (0-3f), Con Buckley 1-1, M Horgan, T Sheehan, S O'Riordan, Shane Corkery 0-1 each.

Aghinagh: Kevin Cotter: Olan Cummins, Cathal Crowley, Eoghan McCarthy: Euan Coughlan, Luke O'Leary, Adam O'Leary: Shane Corkery, Aodh Twomey: Con Buckley, Micheál Horgan, Sean O'Riordan: Cathal O'Riordan, Peter Murphy, Liam Twohig. Tom Creedon Cup Final

Cill na Martra 2-9 Knocknagree 1-11

The final of the Tom Creedon Cup drew a big crowd to a sun drenched Castle Grounds in Macroom and the teams produced a contest worthy of the occasion. Cill na Martra won the intermediate championship last year and are now one of the fancied sides to take the premier intermediate crown, Knocknagree harbour ambitions of succeeding the Gaeltacht men as intermediate champions. Both sides have had impressive league campaigns this spring and early summer, and both are oozing confidence at present. In a game of quality football played at pace and with total commitment, Cill na Martra came out on top by the minimum, coming from two down, scoring the last three points of a game which was a thrilling spectacle.

Cill na Martra lined out without Tadgh Ó Corcora, drafted into the Cork panel for the Dublin game, and due to holidays, were also short at least four others considered regular starters. Knocknagree were also not at full strength, their Cork panellist Eoghan McSweeney a notable absentee but replacements on both sides were eager to stake their claims for championship starting places later.

Cill na Martra opened the scoring with a smashing goal from Damien Ó hUrdail in the 7th minute, an opportunity set up by Shane and Daniel Ó Duinnín but in truth they could have had more goals at this stage, only the crossbar denying Dan Ó Duinnín on one occasion. Denis O'Connor pointed for Knocknagree in the 9th minute and then their scorer-in-chief Anthony O'Connor pointed two frees in succession to level matters. Points were exchanged, Ó hUrdail and O'Connor, before the later put the Duhallow men in front in the 20th minute with an excellent point from play. Another O'Connor point was matched by one from Maidhcí Ó Duinnín and when Denis O'Connor kicked his second point in the 26th minute, Shane Ó Duinnín replied from a late free for Cill na Martra to leave the minimum still between the teams at the break, Knocknagree 0-7 to 1-3 for the Gaeltacht men.

Cill na Martra were level again within three minutes of the resumption, Daniel Ó Duinnín the point scorer, but the Muskerry men were shocked five minutes later when Geróid Looney palmed a well timed cross to the net. O'Connor pointed another free to put his side four points clear and it looked as if the game could slip away from the Cill na Martra side.

The game took a dramatic turn in the 42nd minute when an ill advised pass infield from a Knocknagree defender to his goalkeeper was intercepted by an alert Shane Ó Duinnín who ran on to slam the ball to the unguarded net and when namesake Daniel added a point, suddenly the teams were level and the scene was set for a tremendous final quarter. Fintan O'Connor replaced black carded Denis O'Connor in the Knocknagree team and with his first touch kicked his side in front and Anthony O'Connor doubled their advantage in the 47th minute, 1-10 to 2-5. Daniel Ó Duinnín then narrowed the gap to a single point from a free. In the 57th minute, Fintan O'Connor increased the Knocknagree lead back to two points with a superb score from play but Daniel Ó Duinnín, who along with Graham Ó Mocháin and former Cork hero Nollaig Ó Laoire were outstanding for the Gaeltacht men, brought the gap back to the minimum again as the supporters were in full voice. There were five minutes injury time to be played and in this period Knocknagree kicked two wides. In between, Damien Ó hUrdail pointed a tricky enough free to bring his side level and from the kick out Nollaig Ó Laoire won possession and parted to team captain Shane Ó Duinnín who advanced at speed and shot the ball over the Knocknagree crossbar for what proved to be the winning point after a wonderful game of football. Scorers: Cill na Martra: D Ó hUrdail 1-2 (0-2f), S Ó Duinnín 1-2 (0-1f), D Ó Duinnín 0-4 (0-1f), M Ó Duinnín 0-1. Knocknagree: G Looney 1-0, A O'Connor 0-7 (0-3f), D O'Connor 0-2, F O'Connor 0-2.

Iveleary 2-10 Kilmichael 0-7

Reigning champions Iveleary qualified for a quarter final joust with Blarney with this victory over neighbours Kilmichael in a disappointing 3rd round Ross Oil Mid Cork Junior football championship tie at Macroom. On a balmy summer evening, the pitch was in immaculate condition, the spectators were anticipating a close contest but in truth after a reasonably even opening half, Iveleary looked to be gaining control and two goals at the three quarter stage made the final outcome certain.

Kilmichael's best period was in the opening quarter. Brendan Cotter opened their scoring after a strong run in the 7th minute, Iveleary lost Finbarr McSweeney early on to injury but Barry O'Leary brought them level and Cathal Vaughan marked his return to championship action with a point from an Iveleary free in the 15th minute. The sides were level at 0-2 each a minute later, Peter Kelleher, the former Cork player lining out at full forward where he was closely guarded by Ciarán O'Riordan with assistance from Barry Murphy, sending over and then Iveleary goalkeeper Joe Creedon made a good save from Shane Foley. Iveleary went a point clear in the 19th minute from a Brian Cronin free and Cathal Vaughan followed immediately with a point from play, to which Chris O'Connell replied for Kilmichael with an equally fine point and the first half concluded with goalkeeper Joe Creedon coming up to point a long range free in the final minute to leave Iveleary leading by 0-5 to 0-3 at the break.

On the restart, Peter Kelleher and Cathal Vaughan exchanged points and then Kilmichael substitute Josh deLacey and Brian Cronin did likewise, 0-7 to 0-5 after 40 minutes. The game then turned decisively in Iveleary's direction with Aaron O'Donovan taking a pass from Barry O'Leary before finding the Kilmichael net with a powerful drive and within minutes, a leg block on substitute Chris Óg Jones resulting in a penalty award which Cathal Vaughan blasted to the net.

With the score now at 2-7 to 0-5 the game was clearly over as a contest as Kilmichael did not possess the firepower up front to bridge the eight point gap and Peter Kelleher, their main threat in attack, was starved of possession and anyway was too well policed to cause undue problems for a competent Iveleary rearguard.

Barry O'Leary and Peter Kelleher swapped scores, and as the game fizzled out Shane Foley from play and Cathal Vaughan from a free each pointed before Brian Cronin had the final score from an Iveleary free in the closing minute.

Iveleary, drawn in a very competitive half of the championship draw, will now set about defending their crown against the stiff challenges ahead.

Scorers: Iveleary: C Vaughan 1-4 (1-0 pen, 0-2f), A O'Donovan 1-0, B Cronin 0-3 (0-2f), B O'Leary 0-2, J Creedon 0-1 (f). Kilmichael: P Kelleher 0-3, B Cotter, C O'Connell, J deLacey and S Foley 0-1 each.

Aghinagh 2-10 Clondrohid 2-9

It's never over till the final whistle blows and that was borne out at Kilmurry where Aghinagh pipped Clondrohid by a single point in the Ross Oil Mid Cork junior football championship 3rd round tie. After a dull first half which finished level at 0-3 each, Aghinagh had a glorious period on the restart and opened up a 1-9 to 0-4 gap. They did not drive on however, content that the job was done, and very nearly paid a heavy price. Aghinagh lost three players in the 55th minute of regular time for three different reasons when they still held a comfortable six point lead and were then hit by Clondrohid thunderbolts, goals in the 57 and 58th minutes which put the western side ahead by a point. When Clondrohid went two clear in the 62nd minute it seemed that victory would be theirs but there was one more twist in the story of this local derby, a goal from Aghinagh full back and captain Dermot O'Callaghan in the 66th minute in a crowded Clondrohid goalmouth, which was to be the second last kick of the game and the winning score.

The sides were level at 0-3 each at the break. Aghinagh led by 0-3 to nil after only three minutes, Clondrohid had drawn level by the 21st minute as the rains fell and there was not much to get excited about.

On the restart, Aghinagh went into overdrive, outscoring their neighbours by six points to one and when Con Buckley booted home a goal in the 39th minute they led by 1-9 to 0-4 and were looking comfortable. Points from Darren Dineen gave Clondrohid some encouragement but the score was 1-10 to 0-7 when a series of events completely changed the tempo of the game. Aghinagh marksman Liam Twohig went off injured, another forward was black carded and Aghinagh were reduced to 14 men when midfielder Michael O'Brien got a second yellow card. A Darren Dineen point for Clondrohid was followed by his 57th minute goal, another from Mathew McDonagh a minute later and amazingly after all that had preceded this, it was Clondrohid who were now in front. Clondrohid players and supporters were on fire now, Aghinagh trying desperately for an equalising point. The game went into time added on and in the 62nd minute Fergal Kelleher kicked a smashing point for Clondrohid to put them two clear. Still the game went on and in the 6th minute of added time, Aghinagh were awarded a 40 metre free which Donal Corkery booted into the packed Clondrohid goalmouth and somehow or other in a mad scramble, Donal O'Callaghan got possession and booted the ball to the net to give his side the narrowest of winning margins.

Scorers: Aghinagh: C Buckley and D O'Callaghan 1-0 each, L Twohig 0-4 (f), D Corkery 0-3, M O'Brien, G O'Sullivan and D Ambrose 0-1 each. Clondrohid: D Dineen 1-6 (1-3f), M McDonagh 1-0, S Desmond, P Lynch, F Kelleher 0-1 each.

Cloughdub 2-15 Ballinora 1-16

A year ago if Ballinora were to meet Cloughdub in the Mid Cork championship a close contest would have been expected. Cloughdub went on to win the county last year and so won intermediate status for this year. It was expected therefore that Ballinora in their absence, would make a strong bid for the MJK OILS Mid Cork title this year and certainly that they would account for the Cloughdub second string. Cloughdub hurlers however are in confident mood at present, prepared well and approached this quarter final clash in determined fashion with no fear, and duly achieved their aim at Ballincollig. Ballinora will be disappointed but having lost earlier to Inniscarra, another club second team, they were aware that their form this season has not been good.

Cloughdub were leading by 1-2 to nil after six minutes, early points from Darragh Walsh and Aodh Twomey followed by a long range goal from Ciarán Canty. Ballinora opened their account in the seventh minute through Darragh Corkery and David Howard from a free scored their second point. Cloughdub replied, Seán O'Connor and two from Darragh Walsh and when David Howard was on target with another Ballinora free in the 20th minute, Cloughdub had further points from Walsh and O'Connor (twice) to lead by 1-8 to 0-3. Ballinora finished the half well with three points, per Holmes, Fitton and Howard, and Cloughdub led by 1-8 to 0-6 but would face the breeze in the second half.

Ballinora went on the offensive when the play resumed and a Howard point from a free improved their position. Cloughdub replied instantly with a Darragh Walsh point and in the 38th minute Ciarán Canty had a second goal to open up a seven point gap. Ballinora to their credit now they went on the offensive and points from Darragh Corkery and Darragh Holmes were followed by a goal in the 46th minute from Alan O'Shea. Points were exchanged, Cloughdub forcing the pace, before Ballinora got the deficit back to a single point in the 31st minute, 2-13 to 1-15 the score.

INTER COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIPS SENIOR FOOTBALL

Dublin 5 – 18 Cork 1 – 17

A late barrage of goals eased Dublin to another huge win at Croke Park, getting their All-Ireland quarter-final group stage campaign off to a flying start. Yet the 13-point winning margin flattered the four-in-a-row All-Ireland champions somewhat with beaten Munster finalists Cork losing little face in a highly competitive encounter. Just three points separated the teams approaching the hour mark but Dublin opened up with some thrilling football in the closing minutes, drilling three more goals to put the game beyond doubt.

Cork started very well and flew into a four-point lead in front of 30,214 spectators. Kevin O'Driscoll, hit their opening point and Sean White, Kerrigan again and Ruairi Deane added three more and with just six minutes on the clock the Rebels led 0-4 to 0-0. Everything was going right for Cork in this period but Dublin soon found their range. O'Callaghan hit their first score in the eighth minute, Dublin's next score was a McCaffrey goal in the 11th minute and suddenly, for all of Cork's good work, there was just a point in it at 0-5 to 1-1. Dublin drew level in the 16th minute and a Fenton point two minutes later put them ahead for the first time. Dublin led by just 1-9 to 0-9 deep into first-half stoppage time when Macauley palmed in Dublin's second goal. A 2-9 to 0-9 half-time advantage flattered the hosts.

Cork were terrific throughout the third quarter and got the margin back down to just two points on a couple of occasions with Luke Connolly firing in a 46th minute penalty after Ian Maguire was pulled down. Substitute Dean Rock finished Tyrone overcame Cork at Croke Park to record back to back wins in the quarter-final group stage. Trailing Cork by six points early in the second-half - and by seven in the first-half after conceding two goals - the 2018 finalists found themselves in a difficult position. But Mickey Harte's side refused to panic and a huge second-half display that included goals from Peter Harte and Cathal McShane - who hit 1-5 each - saw them to an important victory.

Tyrone were at their best in the periods either side of half-time and outscored the Munster finalists by 2-4 to 0-1 between the 27th and 48th minutes. They had a strong finale too with Harte, McShane, the excellent Mattie Donnelly and Tiarnan McCann all hitting crucial points.

their top scorer Luke Connolly, fed by Ian Maguire. Their second goal came in the 18th minute and this time defender James Loughrey was the player who guided a right-footed shot to the left corner of the net. Cork led by seven points approaching the half-time and were sitting pretty with a 2-4 to 0-5 interval lead despite back to back late points from Peter Harte.

The Tyrone management responded by changing a fifth of their team for the second-half, with changes in defence, midfield and attack and upping of the ante, Tyrone were dramatically ahead after 48 minutes with a 2-7 to 2-5 lead, the first time they were ahead.

Cork refused to throw in the towel and the sides were level twice after that at 2-9 and 2-10 apiece but Tyrone, crucially, never trailed again.

And when the need was greatest it was the Ulster outfit that drew on all their big game experience to grind out a priceless win with seven points from the 60th minute onwards.

Scorers for Cork: Luke Connolly 1-3 (2fs), Michael Hurley 0-4, James Loughrey 1-0, Mark Collins 0-2 (2fs), Mattie Taylor 0-1, Sean White 0-1, John O'Rourke 0-1.

Subs: James Loughrey for Tomas Clancy (12), Paul Kerrigan for Hurley (49), Michael Hurley for Collins (52), Sean Powder for Sean White (59), John O'Rourke for O'Driscoll (59), Stephen Sherlock for Cronin (67).

SENIOR HURLING

KILKENNY 2-27 CORK 3-18

Kilkenny turned in a powerful second-half performance to see off Cork and secure a semi-final place. Trailing by two points at half-time, Brian Cody's side summoned up all their courage and character and displayed no little quality to firstly reel Cork in before turning the screw emphatically. It was eight unanswered points between the 40th and 52nd minutes that ultimately propelled the 2015 All-Ireland champions through to the last four. They will face holders Limerick in the semi-finals, a repeat of last year's quarter-final tie which the Shannonsiders won narrowly.

Cork, who have now bowed out of the Championship at Croke Park for the third season running, had an inspired full-forward in Patrick Horgan, who struck 3-10 yet somehow finished on the losing side.

Scorers for Cork: Patrick Horgan 3-10 (1-0 pen, 8fs), Alan Cadogan 0-4, Seamus Harnedy 0-2, Mark Coleman 0-1, Darragh Fitzgibbon 0-1.

Cork: Anthony Nash; Seán O'Donoghue

(Inniscarra), Eoin Cadogan, Niall O'Leary; Mark Ellis, Stephen McDonnell, Mark Coleman (Blarney); Billy Cooper, Darragh Fitzgibbon; Daniel Kearney, Conor Lehane, Luke Meade; Alan Cadogan, Patrick Horgan, Seamus Harnedy. Subs: Robbie O'Flynn for Lehane (45), Shane Kingston for Kearney (47), Tim O'Mahony for Cooper (50), Damien Cahalane for O'Donoghue (54), Christopher Joyce for Meade (63).

UNDER 20 FOOTBALL

Cork 3-16 Kerry 0-12

Cork dethroned Kerry as EirGrid Munster Under 20 football champions in emphatic fashion at Páirc Uí Rinn. Keith Ricken's charges were full value for their victory in front of 2,758 spectators and denied Kerry a clean sweep of 2019 provincial football titles with a display highlighted by some terrific individual scores.

Cork made three changes following their facile 31-point demolition of Waterford with Daniel O'Connell, Colm O'Callaghan and Seán Meehan starting.

Cork led by 0-10 to 0-6 at the break and Cork conjured up a cracking goal early in the second period, Blake Murphy raced on to a hopeful ball and thundered an unstoppable shot into the top corner. Additional Cathal O'Mahony, Damien Gore and Colm Barrett points added to Kerry's misery as the Rebels played with a swagger and an arrogance usually associated with Kerry.

The closing stages saw Cork's defence deny their opponents time and space with a couple of late Donal O'Sullivan frees helping reduce the deficit. Cork's win was never in doubt however and they finished with a flourish as Fionn Herlihy and Cathal O'Mahony rattled the Kerry net to complete their rout.

Scorers for Cork: Cathal O'Mahony 1-5 (1f), Mark Cronin 0-5, Blake Murphy 1-1, Fionn Herlihy 1-0, Colm Barrett and Damien Gore 0-2 each, Colm O'Callaghan 0-1.

CORK: Josh O'Keeffe; Michael O'Mahony, Maurice Shanley, Paul Ring (Aghabullogue); Gearoid O'Donovan, Seán Meehan, Peter O'Driscoll; Brian Hartnett, Daniel O'Connell; Colm Barrett, Colm O'Callaghan (Éire Óg), Mark Hodnett; Mark Cronin, Cathal O'Mahony, Damien Gore.

Subs: Blake Murphy for Hodnett (27), Daniel O'Connell for Murphy (36, blood), Fionn Herlihy for O'Callaghan (48), Jack Murphy (Éire Óg) for Barrett (50), Jack McCarthy for O'Donovan (59), Shane Hickey for Meehan (60).

Cork Ladies Senior Football Championship

Cork 6 - 19 Cavan 3 - 8

The outstanding Orla Finn scored 0-12 as Cork kickstarted their All-Ireland SFC Group 1 campaign with a convincing win over Cavan at Mullingar. Eimear Scally, Saoirse Noonan and Libby Coppinger also stood out on a day when Ephie Fitzgerald's charges issued a strong statement of intent in their quest to reclaim the Brendan Martin Cup. Following an initially tight opening, the Leaside challenge pushed into gear. Finn (two), Aine O'Sullivan and Eimear Scally added points, before an O'Sullivan shot squeezed underneath Elaine Walsh for a Cork goal in the 12th-minute. The league champions remained in control, until Cavan responded with a brace of goals to force their way back into contention. A Scally point settled Cork and Coppinger then linked up with Noonan to grab her side's second major on 25 minutes. Donna English added an additional point for Cavan but with Finn in sparkling form, Cork ended the half nine points in front on a scoreline of 2-13 to 2-4.

Within 60 seconds of the restart, the impressive Kinsale attacker contributed her fifth point from play to move the Cork lead into double digits. Cavan gained brief respite, only for the Munster side to re-assert their authority. Noonan finally got the better of the Cavan netminder at the end of a sweeping move. Coppinger got her second goal and Cork's fourth before team captain Doireann O'Sullivan was introduced for her first appearance of the championship. Finn continued to do the bulk of the damage for Cork and Scally's successful penalty enhanced their tally inside the closing-quarter. Doireann O'Sullivan capped a fine cameo with a point on 53 minutes, in advance of swapped goals between Cavan substitute Geraldine Sheridan and Orlagh Farmer. Aisling Sheridan and Lauren McVeety were on target late on for the Breffni county, who are still in line for a quarter-final place should Armagh fail to beat Cork at O'Connor Park, Tullamore next weekend. Scorers - Cork: O Finn 0-12 (6f), L Coppinger 2-0, E Scally (1-0 pen), S Noonan 1-2 each, A O'Sullivan, O Farmer 1-1 each, D O'Sullivan 0-1.

Cork: M O'Brien; S Kelly, H Looney, E Meaney; M O'Callaghan, M Duggan, E Spillane; A Hutchings, A O'Sullivan; L Coppinger, C O'Sullivan, O Finn; O Farmer, S Noonan, E Scally. Subs: E Kiely for Looney (h-t), R Ni Bhuachalla for Noonan, D O'Sullivan for Coppinger (both 40), D Kiely for O'Callaghan, M Ambrose for Meaney (both 52).

Great Cork Win for Macroom's Noel Murphy

Professional boxer, Noel Murphy, Masseytown, Macroom had a great win at Neptune Stadium, Cork on July 20. Great crowds of supporters travelled from the Lee Valley to cheer Noel to victory over Hungarian, Adam Mate. This was the Macroom man's 14th win since he turned professional and it went the full eight rounds, when he was declared a decisive winner 79 - 74. Crowds had previously travelled from Macroom to see Noel win in the National Stadium in Dublin, but this was their first opportunity to see him fight as a professional in Cork; his based is in New York. Noel (25) started his boxing career with Macroom Boxing Club, now, sadly, closed down.

Cork Camogie Seniors in All Ireland Semi-final

Over the weekend, July 13,14, Cork, Waterford and Tipperary all secured their progression to the knockout stages of the Liberty Insurance All-Ireland Senior Camogie Championship when they secured home wins at the expense of Meath, Clare and Dublin respectively. Reigning champions, Cork, maintained their one hundred percent record when they defeated Meath in Páirc Uí Rinn. The Rebels wasted no time in taking control of the game despite conceding the first point to Kristina Troy. They moved 0-8 to 0-3 clear before two goals in four minutes, the first from Ciara McCarthy and the second from Katelynn Hickey, left Meath with a mountain to climb. Laura Hayes and Cliona Healy were on target with frees to push the gap out to 2-11 to 0-3 at half-time, and while the Royals did manage a goal of their own three minutes in to the second half, their attacking forays were few and far between and Cork restricted them to two further points in the second half. Manager, Paudie Murray, went deep into his panel for this game, using only a handful of players who would normally be considered frontline starters, and the hunger to catch the eye of the manager was clear as a young team kept piling on the scores. A third goal from Linda Collins in the 53rd minute sealed what was an emphatic Cork 3-22 to Meath 1-5 victory. Camogie activity July 20/ 21 secured semi-final qualifications for Group 1 winners, Kilkenny and All Ireland champions and Group 2 winners, Cork on August 17. The other semi-finalists will be determined by Waterford v Galway and Tipperary v Limerick All Ireland quarter-finals on August 3. In their final match of the qualifiers, Cork continued their unbeaten run when they produced a trademark improved second-half showing to see off Waterford by 2-10 to 0-7 in the Liberty Insurance All-Ireland Senior Camogie Championship. In a game played in horrible conditions, with a strong wind and driving rain, Waterford gave their brave supporters plenty to shout about in the first half and were 0-6 to 0-4 ahead at the break. The teams were level four times in the first 20 minutes as Carton exchanged scores with Orla Cotter, and then with Orla Cronin. Cronin pushed Cork ahead for the first time but Áine Lyng responded with Waterford's first score from play. The Déise had the better of the second quarter before Gemma O'Connor edged the Rebels in front once more. It was the Carton show for the remainder of the half, as she split the posts three times from placed balls to give Waterford that two-point interval advantage. Cronin had a brace of points to restore parity within two minutes and the teams were still inseparable at the three-quarter mark when the Enniskeneane sharpshooter sent a shot to the top corner of the net that gave the goalie no chance. Niamh McCarthy's injury-time goal was harsh on Waterford, who will now play Galway in the All-Ireland Quarter-Final at Semple Stadium on August 3rd, with Tipperary and Limerick also doing battle. Cork and fellow group winners Kilkenny qualify directly to in the All-Ireland Semi-Finals, which will take place on August 17th.

A Word of Victory

Welcome back dear reader "my God shall supply all your needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:19). God has made provision for you and I in every area of our lives – note the Scripture says 'all' your needs! God's promises are true and He is 'not a man that He should lie' (Numbers 23:19). In fact 'it is impossible for God to lie' (Hebrews 6:18). Powerless rituals and negative experiences have caused many people to get weary in faith from hopelessness – doubting that God - believing that He never has or never will come through for them. 'God is our Sun and Shield...no good thing will He withhold from those who walk uprightly.' (Psalm 84:11). The word 'uprightly' refers to a person with an undivided heart who fears and trusts in the Lord. God as our 'Sun and Shield' speaks of Him illuminating life's path and bringing warmth and growth. The 'Shield' represents His protection around us quenching every fiery dart of the enemy (Ephesians 6:16). God promised Abram that He would be his shield and reward (Genesis 15:1). Later, it was Abraham who first recognised God as the 'Lord our Provider' when God tested his heart regarding his longed for son, Isaac (Genesis 22:1-19). God asked Abraham to offer Isaac as a sacrifice to Him. This is an unimaginable request but God was testing Abraham to see if Isaac had become an idol – taking God's place in his heart. But Abraham obeyed God and prepared everything for the sacrifice figuring that God would either provide His own sacrifice, or raise the boy from the dead – read it yourself friend, the tension builds verse by verse. This episode was a prophetic foreshadow of what God Himself did by giving His own Son Jesus as a sacrifice for all humanity to be saved (John 3:16). God told Abraham to go to Mount Moriah which is the same place Jesus was crucified. Abraham put the timber for the sacrifice upon Isaac's back – what a poignant image because many generations later Jesus, our Saviour carried His timber Cross upon His ripped and torn up back (John 19:17; Isaiah 53:4-5). As Abraham was about to carry through what God had asked the Lord provided a ram for the sacrifice instead. Abraham passed the test, but God provided so that he wouldn't have to lose Isaac, his promise. Friend, God sacrificed His Son Jesus to set you and me and all who believe in Him free!

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS: MAKING A WILL

Question: I would like to make a will. Do I need to go to a solicitor or can I draw up the will myself?

Answer: It is important for you to make a will because if you do not, the law on intestacy decides what happens to your property in the event of your death. Writing a will can ensure that proper arrangements are made for your dependants and that your property is distributed in the way you wish after your death (subject to certain rights of spouses or civil partners and children). You can draw up a will yourself or you can hire a solicitor to help you. For a will to be legally valid, the following rules apply:

- The will must be in writing
- You must be over 18 (if you are or have been married, you can be under 18)
- You must be of sound mind
- You must sign or mark the will or acknowledge the signature or mark in the presence of two witnesses.
- Your two witnesses must sign the will in your presence
- Your two witnesses cannot be people who will gain from your will and they must be present with you at the same time for their attestation to be valid. The witnesses' spouses/civil partners also cannot gain from your will.
- Your witnesses must see you sign the will but they do not have to see what is written in it.
- The signature or mark must be at the end of the will.

These are legal requirements and if any of them are not met, the will is not valid. If you want to change your will after you make it, you can add a codicil (amendment or change) to your will; this codicil must meet the requirements set out above. You should keep an updated list of your assets. You can use a form to record where your possessions are kept. This will make it easier to identify and trace your assets after you die. You should keep the list in a safe place. Further information is available from the Citizens Information Centre below.

Safety on the Farm

Here are some safety reminders that all farms, farmers and farm families should observe. You may want to add your own safety reminders to this list.

- Farmers need to do daily safety and maintenance checks on all tractors used to perform farm work.
- Farm tractors have one seat. This means one operator and no extra riders on fenders, hitches or in front-end loader buckets.
- All farm tractors and any attached or trailing farm equipment must display the triangular, orange Slow Moving Vehicle (SMV) emblem.
- All operators of newer tractors equipped with a 2-point or 4-point ROPS (Rollover Protective Structure), must also wear the seat belt provided in order to be protected in a backward or sideways flip.
- Be cautious around all livestock that have given birth.
- Be aware of potentially deadly gas when working close to slurry storage.
- Never trust any hydraulically-raised equipment, such as front-end loaders, dump trailers, etc.
- Be aware of steep hillsides when harvesting any crop on the farm.

- Never step-over a running PTO shaft.
 - Be sure all PTO shields and other safety shields are in good repair and properly secured on all farm equipment.
 - When work has to be performed on a farm implement, be sure that the PTO has been shut off and that all machine movement has ceased.
 - Always wait for a hot engine to cool before attempting to re-fuel a tractor.
 - Never start a tractor in a closed garage or shed. The carbon monoxide (CO) threat can cause a human and/or animal fatality. Keep well-ventilated.
 - Be sure to match farm equipment/ implements to a tractor that is compatible to that equipment/implement.
- Bígí cúramach! Consumers across the globe rely on a small number of dedicated farmers to keep the world fed. Food producers can stay safe by making good decisions when working with their farm machines and livestock. We suggest a large dose of respect for the potential of a farm accident, and continuous vigilance for the many and diverse farm safety challenges. Remember, farm safety is no accident.

WHEN COSMETIC SURGERY GOES WRONG

Cosmetic surgery is elective surgery which aims to improve one's aesthetic appearance. This is an area of medicine which does not have any proper regulation in Ireland. As a result of this there are numerous "cowboys" performing complicated surgical procedures for which they lack the requisite experience, expertise and skill and this is giving rise to significant post-operative complications for patients. In many cases the post-surgical aftercare of routine complications are substandard.

When things go wrong during a cosmetic surgery procedure, the consequences for the patient can be devastating, not just physically but emotionally and financially as well.

While nothing can make up for the distress caused by a wrongful procedure, if you have suffered at the hands of a negligent cosmetic surgeon, you may be entitled to some compensation.

Common Cosmetic Surgery Claims

Today, cosmetic surgery is more than just a tummy tuck or a breast implant. This procedure is being done to reduce, increase and improve various parts of the body and as the scope of this type of surgery widens, so has the potential for different types of claims.

Some of the more common cosmetic surgery claims arise from something going wrong with these procedures:

- Breast augmentation
- Facelifts
- Liposuction
- Botox injections
- Plastic surgery
- Tummy tucks
- Rhinoplasty
- Eyelid surgery
- Brow lift

- Chemical peel
- Ear surgery
- Cosmetic dentistry

Do You Have A Case For Compensation?

From a legal standpoint, all medical practitioners, including doctors and plastic surgeons owe their patients 'duty of care'. In lay terms, what this means is that these medical professionals are obliged to take reasonable precautions to ensure your safety and wellbeing while you are in their care, whether it is for health or cosmetic purposes.

Cosmetic surgery is treated as any other area of medical practice and when something goes wrong, it is for the law to decide whether or not there is any legal liability to pay the patient compensation or damages for their injuries and resultant losses.

Not surprisingly, establishing liability is reasonably clear-cut in some cases, whereas in other cases, it could get quite complicated and expert medical opinion may be necessary.

What you should also know is that it may not be enough for you to file a claim simply because you are dissatisfied by the result of your cosmetic surgery. There is a fine line between being unhappy with the results and actual malpractice or negligence.

The legal stand is that prospective claimants ought to be realistic and reasonable about the outcome of the procedure that they had elected to undergo.

What Exactly Will You Get Compensated For?

Here is what you might be entitled to claim compensation for if you have been at the receiving end of cosmetic surgery gone wrong:

- Physical injuries

- Psychological scars
- Loss of earnings
- The cost of having to undergo corrective procedures
- The cost of care
- Any other out of pocket expenditure directly related to the procedure

While calculating tangible compensation such as expenses incurred for corrective procedure and other medical expenses is fairly straightforward, calculating intangible compensation for psychological injuries and other inconveniences and losses can get quite complicated. This is one of the main reasons why you will need a really good cosmetic surgery claims solicitor on your side. Your solicitor will assess the level of compensation that you should be entitled to receive and will build your case so that you get the maximum award.

Crookstown Vintage Club are delighted to announce that they will be holding their 31st Annual Vintage Show this year on Sunday 11th August. Another eventful weekend is lined up, starting with the High Nelly Run which is growing in popularity, drawing young and old from far and near, even from across the County Bounds. It will kick off at 4.30pm on Saturday the 10th from the Cornerstone Bar.

This will be followed by a sold out show by Comedian Bernard Casey in the local Parish Hall. Sunday's Show will be officially opened by Doctor Jason Van Der Velde at 1.30pm.

Finally we would like to express our sincere condolences to the family and friends of the Late Brendan Grace who entertained us so well at last year's show. A true legend who will be sadly missed.

Looking forward to seeing you all again at this year's show and hope to see some new faces too...

INCHIGEELA FESTIVAL 2019

It's hard to believe that this year will be the 10th anniversary of the Inchigeela Festival since its revival. Having enjoyed success back in the 70s and 80s, in 2010 the Uibh Laoire GAA decided to host a comeback of sorts and relocated our festival to the picturesque setting that is River Island. Having hosted the likes of Crystal Swing, The Rubberbandits, the late Brendan Grace, Mike Denver and Jenny Greene over the years, there really is something for everyone. We are thrilled to announce our line up for 2019 is equally as impressive.

On Thursday the 15th of August, we're providing lovers of Irish country music with a sit-down concert. Titled "A Night with the Stars of Irish Country Music", we have 7 excellent artists (including Kathy Durkin, John Hogan, Gerry Guthrie, Louise Morrissey, The Ryan Turner Band, Ray Lynam & PJ Murrhy) who promise to deliver show stopping tracks for young and old, with Caitriona O Donovan doing MC on the night. Tickets can be bought on the door on the night with the show starting at 8pm sharp.

Friday, August 16th sees the return of the enjoyable charitable 5km Fun Run/Walk with all proceeds going to Local Hospitals in Macroom & Dunmanway. As per last year, the route will head out the main Macroom road with registration open from 6:30pm @ Uibh Laoire GAA Grounds and the race due to kick off at 7.30pm. The route is ideal for anyone who is new to running and is a favourite for people going after some quick times. Later that night from 9pm in the festival marquee, we will be dancing (over 4 hours of dancing!) the night away with Mike, Helen & Southern Pride, followed by one of the hottest talents in Irish Country Music at the moment, Derek Ryan. Ryan is Irish country music's golden boy with chart topping albums, self-written smash hit singles, box office busting live tours and of course – an army of faithful fans around the world so make sure to get to the marquee early for this one. Ticket also available on the door on the night.

Saturday, August 17th is once again a day to be enjoyed with the family, as Uibh Laoire GAA Grounds hosts a Family Fun & Sports Day with events for all to enjoy from 2pm. The now cult classic, Inchigeela's Fittest Family is scheduled to return so the title will once again be up for grabs after last year's competitive dual. Hoping to leave the family rivalries on the field, the night finishes off in style at the marquee from 10 pm with live music from the social media sensation and top-class DJ Marty Guilfoyle, followed by renowned DJ Mark McCabe. This duo are returning for the 2nd year at Inchigeela Festival, firmly establishing it as the "Dance night of the festival", we expect 2019 to be even bigger so get back to the Marquee early!

On Sunday, August 18th, the final day of the festival, we return once more to the Uibh Laoire GAA Grounds with the Tug O War flagged to begin at 12pm. A children's fancy dress parade will provide the evening entertainment from 6 pm, followed by live outdoor music from local singer Leah Hartnett and her band in Inchigeela village. The festival will then close out in style with music at the marquee from 10 pm by the very popular Tradstone followed by the excellent and well-known band Bog the Donkey.

Be sure to come along with family and friends to what is guaranteed to be another great weekend in Inchigeela! We would also like to thank everyone for their continued support over the last couple of years!

Stay connected with 'Inchigeela Festival' on Facebook (Inchigeela Festival) and on Twitter (@InchigeelaFest).

MEMORIALS & REMEMBRANCE

POWERFUL NOVENA

This novena never fails. Say it on the hour for nine hours. Jesus who has said, ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and the door will open to you. Through the intercession of Mary, the Most Holy Mother, I knock, I ask that my prayer will be granted. (Make your request).
 Oh Jesus, has said all you ask the Father in my name, he will grant through the intercession of Mary, the Most Holy Mother. I humbly beg and urgently ask the Father in thy name that my prayer be granted (make request here). Oh Jesus who has said heaven and earth shall pass away through the intercession of Mary, the Most Holy Mother. I fell confident my prayer shall be answered. (Make request here).
 This novena is to be said at the same time every hour for nine consecutive hours - one day. Promised publication, never fails.

NOVENA TO THE SACRED HEART

Dear Heart of Jesus, in the past I have asked many favours. This time I ask you this special one, (mention favour).
 Take it dear heart of Jesus and place it within your heart where your father sees it.
 Then in his merciful eyes it will become your favour, not mine. Amen.

Say this prayer three times for three days and your favour will be granted.
 Never known to fail.
 Must promise publication of prayer.

NOVENA TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

O Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal. You gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things you have given me as you confirm once again that I never wanted to be separated from you in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with you in Eternal Glory. Thank you for mercy towards me and mine.

This prayer must be said for three days, after three days the favour will be granted.

PRAYER TO ST. ANTHONY

*Come Holy Spirit. Creator blest,
And in our hearts take up Thy rest:
Come with Thy grace and heavenly aid:
To fill the hearts which Thou hast made.
St. Anthony, powerful in word and work:
Grant what we ask of thee.
St. Anthony, our patron and advocate,
Grant us what we ask of thee.
St. Anthony attentive of those who invoke thee,
Grant us what we ask of thee.
St. Anthony, whom the Infant Jesus so much loved:
Grant us what we ask of thee.*

O holy St. Anthony, gentlest of saints, your love for God, and charity for your neighbour made you worthy when on earth, to possess miraculous powers. Miracles waited on your word, which you were ever ready to speak, for those in trouble or anxiety. Encouraged by this thought, I implore of you, to obtain for me, my request (mention it). The answer to my prayer, may require a miracle: even so you are the saint of miracles. O gentle, and loving St. Anthony, whose heart was ever full of human sympathy, intercede for me, and the gratitude of my heart, will ever be yours. Amen.

16th ANNIVERSARY

In loving memory of

JOAN WALSH

Chicago, USA and Toames, Macroom.
Whose anniversary occurs on August 2nd.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there, I did not die.*

Always remmebered by her daughter Niamh, sons Cathal and Conor, sister Noreen, brothers James, Pat, Stephen and all the family at home and abroad.

POWERFUL NOVENA

This novena never fails. Say it on the hour for nine hours. Jesus who has said, ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and the door will open to you. Through the intercession of Mary, the Most Holy Mother, I knock, I ask that my prayer will be granted. (Make your request).

Oh Jesus, has said all you ask the Father in my name, he will grant through the intercession of Mary, the Most Holy Mother. I humbly beg and urgently ask the Father in thy name that my prayer be granted (make request here). Oh Jesus who has said heaven and earth shall pass away through the intercession of Mary, the Most Holy Mother. I fell confident my prayer shall be answered. (Make request here).

This novena is to be said at the same time every hour for nine consecutive hours - one day. Promised publication, never fails.

ED15

PRAYER TO ST. TERESE

O glorious Saint Therese, whom Almighty God has raised up to aid and counsel mankind, I implore your Miraculous Intercession.

So powerful are you in obtaining every need of body and soul our Holy Mother Church proclaims you a "Prodigy of Miracles...the Greatest Saint of Modern Times." Now I fervently beseech you to answer my petition (mention here) and to carry out your promises of spending Heaven doing good upon the earth... of letting fall from Heaven a Shower of Roses.

Henceforth, dear Little Flower, I will fulfill your plea "to be made known everywhere" and I will never cease to lead others to Jesus through you.

Amen.

Say the above for 9 days and you will receive a flower or a rose in some form during or after 9 days as an indication that your request will be granted.

PRAYER TO BLESSED TERESA OF CALCUTTA

Blessed Teresa of Calcutta, Jesus called you to 'be his light' by loving and serving him wholeheartedly in the poorer of the poor and so satiating his thirst for love and souls. Grab that I may also be, like you, a carrier of his light love and peace to others, radiating his tender mercy to my brothers and sisters who live in darkness and pain. Dear Mother Teresa you promised to continue from Heaven your mission of showing God's special love for those in need. With confidence then, I entrust this intention to your care (state your petition). Amen
