Australian Bred Rose of the Year 2019

It gives me great pleasure to announce the 2019 Australian Bred Rose of the Year. This is the seventh year this award has been made and is the brainchild of Ausrose Promotions CEO Doug Hayne as a tool to promote Australian Bred Roses. The winners and breeders to date have been: - 2013 Joyce Abounding (Dr Bruce Chapman), 2014 Flemington Racecourse (Dr Bruce Chapman), 2015 Imp (George Dawson), 2016 China Sunrise (Laurie Newman), 2017 Love's Gift (George Thomson), 2018 Amazing Grace (Dr Bruce Chapman). To date, Dr Bruce Chapman has been the most successful breeder with three wins.

Criteria used to select the Australian Bred Rose of the Year includes performance and official rose trials, individual's assessment (disease resistance, robustness of bush, longevity in catalogues, vigour, number of flowers in a flush, number of flushes in a year, fragrance), popular vote from description and photo. All these are combined to give a final assessment.

This year after all the data is taken into account a new breeder Bruce Brundrett won the award with the floribunda My Yellow.

My Yellow is exceptionally quick to produce fragrant blooms, with new growth commencing before the blooms are spent. The colour rarely fades with the sun, usually deepening the yellow hue to orange flushes. The blooms have a strong fragrance and the bushes grow to a height to 80cm. Winner of a Silver Medal and Davis Trophy for the Best Australian Bred Rose at the Year National Rose Trial Garden of Australia.
