UNBRIDLED ENTHUSIASM AT SARATOGA

A colt by the Unbridled out of Words of War (Lord at War {Arg}) brought a final bid of $2.7 million to top the second session of Fasig-Tipton's 2003 Saratoga Yearling Sales at the Humphrey S. Finney Pavilion yesterday. Consigned by Stone Farm and Stonerside Stable, with Stone Farm as agent, the bay was purchased by Padua Stables. Words of War, a multiple stakes winner of $683,832, is the dam of E Dubai (Mr. Prospector), a MGSW of $800,800, and Listed winner No Matter What (Nureyev), a $425,000 KEEJUL yearling who captured the GI Del Mar Oaks. The underbidder was

B. Wayne Hughes. Satish Sanan shook hands with Hughes when the bidding ended, commenting, "You're tough." Hughes replied, "Not as tough as you." Asked about the colt, Sanan said, "He's a good one. Everything about him was good. This was one of the ones we wanted. We were going to get this colt. We thought he would bring about $3 million, so there was gas left in the tank. We hope he is another Vindication. If he stays sound, he'll be the horse." He remarked that he hasn't yet decided on a trainer, but added, "We'll get him a home." Arthur Hancock, who bred yesterday's session topper, said, "[Tuesday] night, the highest price was $1.1 million, so we weren't sure [what to expect]. You go in there and hope for the best. He is a lovely colt. I made the statement that this colt is right up there with Risen Star and Fusaichi Pegasus. He's got the attitude, the air, the pedigree and the physique of a real good horse. He does everything right. I believe he is going to be a real good horse. Now he's in good hands." Hancock bred Fusaichi Pegasus, who is making a splash with his first crop of yearlings. "We've got a couple of weanlings on the farm by him that look great," he said. "I think he's going to make a top stallion."

A Sale By Any Other Name...

Hip 107 initially appeared to be an RNA, but after leaving the ring, was listed as purchased for $1.9 million by trainer Patrick Biancone, who was acting as agent for three or four partners that included the colt's breeder, Virginia Payson. According to Terence Collier, Fasig-Tipton's director of marketing, the colt was purchased privately after departing from the ring. The half-brother to 2002 juvenile champion Vindication was consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency on behalf of Payson Stud Inc. "I thought the horse could bring $2.5 to $3 million," Duncan Taylor said, "but I think we did a disservice to Mrs. Payson. We got too high...because we had every person that you would want in the business on the horse. I think he is as good a looking as an A.P. Indy gets, and he's a 3/4 brother to a champion, so I think we just misjudged it." He added, "Mrs. Payson and Mr. Biancone had been talking earlier. I don't think the money he had together in his partnership could really come close to getting the horse, but we thought that didn't make a difference. Obviously we were wrong. Patrick talked to Mrs. Payson and they put a deal together. It happened so quickly...and Mrs. Payson did retain part of the horse."

Another Home Run for Fu Peg...

First-crop sire Fusaichi Pegasus had another big seller yesterday, with his colt out of a half-sister to champion Silverbulletday bringing $900,000. "He has been pretty special from Day 1," said consignor Rick Littrell. "Not knowing how many Fu Pegs there would be at Keeneland in September, we thought we would beat the rush. We thought he would handle the trip from Kentucky--he has a great mind and he's very athletic."

Added buyer Jeanne Vance, "We were very happy to get him. He's just gorgeous, absolutely wonderful, and of course he's from a fine family. You just couldn't fault him." The colt will be sent to trainer Bill Mott.

Trainer John Ward Jr., who picked out Fusaichi Pegasus and broke the cantankerous colt, has been impressed by the offspring he has seen so far. "We have only seen four or five of them, but they look good," he said. "Only time will tell what crosses do best with him." He added that while the yearlings he has seen to date do not resemble their sire, "We've only seen the tip of the iceberg so far with him."

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

Hip 146, f, Marquetry--Baby North, by Northern Baby
Consigned by Denali Stud (Craig Bandoroff), Agent / Bred by Eileen H. Hartis (TX).

On Sunday, GISW Got Koko (Signal Tap) takes on reigning Horse of the Year Azeri in the GII Clement L. Hirsch H. at Del Mar. Tonight, her little sister goes under the hammer at Saratoga. The chestnut, named Firebaby, has been through the ring once before, bringing $215,000 at the 2003 Keeneland January Sale. The buyer was Josham Farms Ltd. "She's a very pretty filly with a lot of quality," Denali's Craig Bandoroff, the consignor in January and again tonight, said. "She's very correct. She was a pretty filly [in January] and she's still a pretty filly. All she has done is grown up a little and filled out and lost her winter coat."

Hip 154, c, Mr. Greeley--Brighter Than Gold, by Light Idea
Consigned by Blackburn Farm (Michael T. Barnett), agent Bred by Sabine Stable (KY).

The bidding for Brighter Than Gold reached only $15,000 at the 1998 Keeneland November Sale and the mare, in foal to Mr. Greeley, was RNA'ed. She found herself in the ring again for the OBS Winter Sale, this time attracting a bid of $40,000 from Sabine Stable. The foal she was carrying turned out to be none other than Nonsuch Bay, who, after selling for $75,000 as an OBSMAR juvenile, went on to win the 2002 GI Mother Goose S. and GII Nassau County Breeders' Cup S. After running third in the GI Go For Wand H. at Saratoga July 27, the four-year-old's earnings now stand at $567,688. Brighter Than Gold was back at Keeneland November last fall, going to B. Wayne Hughes for $260,000 while in foal to Hennessy.

Hip 215, c, Fusaichi Pegasus--Hidden Storm, by Storm Cat
Consigned by Eaton Sales, agent Bred by Eagle Holdings (KY).

Hidden Storm, an unraced six-year-old from the family of blue hen mare Prospectors Delite, was carrying this foal when she was purchased for $450,000 by Gaines-Gentry Thoroughbreds at the 2001 Keeneland November Sale. The price looks like a bargain--Fu Peg has scored very well with his first yearlings. The first to sell brought $800,000 at Fasig-Tipton in July; there were two sold on opening night at Saratoga, with a filly bringing $700,000 and a colt attracting a final bid of $500,000; and another brought $900,000 last night. The 2000 Kentucky Derby winner stood for $150,000 in his first season at stud.

Hip 217, f, Forest Wildcat--Hold to Fashion, by Hold Your Peace
Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent XCI Bred by Blair E. Minnich (PA).

This yearling should attract some attention after the exploits of her half-brother Peace Rules (Jules) over the weekend. Peace Rules, himself a modest $35,000 OBSMAR purchase, took the field from gate to wire to win the $1 million GI Haskell Invitational H. at Monmouth Park, bringing his career earnings to $1,859,990. But even before the colt was revealed to be one of the best of his generation, his dam, who went to a sextet of moderate stallions during her first seven years in the breeding shed, was given a chance to upgrade the pedigree, going to Forest Wildcat in 2001. The stallion stood for $25,000 that season, but commanded a fee of $60,000 this year. He has 17 stakes winners from his first four crops.

Congratulations to the best customers in the world on recent Grade I and Grade II winners!

TRF HITS A HOME RUN

The Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation's annual gala in Saratoga Springs, NY, held Monday evening under a tent on the grounds of the Saratoga Golf & Polo Club, was highlighted by a pair of live auctions, first of selected stallion season options and, second, a collection of "unique experiences," which collectively raised over $500,000 for the charity. A season option to leading handicapper Mineshaft, donated by Lane's End Farm, brought the top-priced bid of $70,000 from Mike Freeman, while Team Valor purchased an option to breed to Coolmore's top freshman sire Fasliyev for $25,000. An option to breed to WinStar Farm's Distorted Humor, sire of Kentucky Derby winner Funny Cide, was purchased for $30,000 by Satish Sanan's Padua Stables. A late entry to the auction was the option to breed to Eclipse Award winner Vindication, graciously donated on the spot by the Padua Stables.

"We made an impromptu decision to donate the season," he explained. "I tried to call [Hill 'n' Dale Farm's John Sikura], but I couldn't get him on the phone. But John's a great guy and we knew that he'd support the decision." Sanan also successfully bid to have a horse of his choice painted by renowned equine artist Leslie Priggen. "I bought that because I thought that I could for Vindication to be painted and give it to John to hang in his office." Sanan and his family are ardent supporters of the TRF and its mission. "My family is very passionate about horses and my wife is sensitive to the way that horses are treated after they're done racing," Sanan said. "When you take something out of the game, you like to give something back." Among the experiences, the top price of $32,000 was paid by Kurt Butenhoff for a trip to next year's Dubai World Cup. Following the bidding, the crowd was invited to the dance floor and was treated to a surprise performance by Johnny Flamengo, a.k.a. David Cassidy. TRF President John Stuart said of the evening, "I think it's clear that there is a growing awareness of the good story of the TRF for racing when it could be a bad story."

HAWK WING COMEBACK UNLIKELY Aidan O'Brien has revealed that Hawk Wing (Woodman--La Lorgnette, by Val de l'Orne {Fr}) may be retired after failing to recover from injury. After a triumphing by 11 lengths in the G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. at Newbury May 17 in his seasonal bow, the four-year-old strained a check ligament when a disappointing seventh in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 17. Despite initial plans to prepare the colt for a return to the track in the fall, O'Brien told the Racing Post, "Things are proving very difficult. He did well in the couple of weeks after Ascot, but he then stopped responding to treatment. We will probably make a decision on him in the next week." Bred by Hill 'n' Dale Farm in Kentucky, Hawk Wing raced in the colours of Mrs. Susan Magnier.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. A wire-to-wire winner on the Churchill lawn May 23, she ran second in an off-the-turf allowance June 11 at the same track and filled the same spot in a one-mile allowance on the grass July 2. When the gates opened, the bay filly went straight to the front and set a leisurely pace, turning for home with a comfortable cushion. She appeared to be looking for tips from the railbirds when she drifted out badly in the stretch, but was never in danger as she crossed the wire 6 1/2 lengths in front. Kathy K D, making her first start on the main track, won a three-way battle for second.

Black-type Minimum Raised to $40,000

Beginning January 1st, 2004, the minimum purse value for black-type stakes races in North America will jump from $35,000 to $40,000, the Society of International Thoroughbred Auctioneers (SITA) announced yesterday. The North American representatives of the International Catalogue Standards Committee (ICSC) recommended the increase and SITA ratified the recommendation. Officials indicated the black-type minimum was increased in order to keep pace with the rising purse structures at tracks nationwide.

HOUGHTON CATALOGUE ONLINE Tattersalls has catalogued 165 yearlings for the prestigious Houghton Sale, which will be held Oct. 1 and 2 in Newmarket, England. The catalogue, now available online at www.tattersalls.com, will be in print Aug. 15. Leading sires Danzig, Indian Ridge (Ire), Kingmambo, Machiavellian, Rainbow Quest, Sadler's Wells and Singspiel (Ire) will be represented, as will the recently deceased Danehill. Darshaan (GB) has eight yearlings catalogued from his final crop. First-crop sires with yearlings scheduled to sell include Giant's Causeway, King's Best, Sinnidar (Ire) and Xaar (GB), while the ill-fated Dubai Millennium (GB) has a pair catalogued from his lone crop. "The Houghton Yearling Sale is an unrivalled source of Group 1 winners with three time Group 1 winner Russian Rhythm providing the best possible advertisement for the sale and this year's catalogue has the customary strength and depth associated with Europe's premier yearling sale," said Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony. "To have almost 10 percent of the catalogue out of Classic/Group 1 winning mares is testimony to yet another outstanding Houghton catalogue."

Charming Prince made an instant impression when winning a conditions race at Maisons-Laffitte July 18, but had to dig deep to open his stakes account in this contest. Stalking the steady early pace set by North-erner, he was short of room on the inner as the sprint began in the straight. Switched wide around the long-time leader by jockey Christophe Soumillon, he had two lengths to make up on that game rival in the final 100 yards. Quickening impressively when in the clear, he got his head in front in the shade of the post as Anabaa Republic closed late.

STOUTE'S YARD FEATURED ON C4'S MORNING LINE

Sir Michael Stoute's yard will play host to Channel Four's Morning Line program this Saturday, Aug. 16, for a live one-hour show that will air from 9-10 a.m. The show will offer viewers an informative insight into the working life at Freemason Lodge, Newmarket with the chance to see this year's GI Vodafone Derby winner Kris Kin and recent GI Nassau S. heroine Russian Rhythm. Channel Four's atheraces presenter Walter Swinburn returns to the saddle to ride work on some of Stoute's top-class horses. "I'm really looking forward to Saturday and, like always, Sir Michael will draft a work list Friday evening," said Swinburn, adding, "and only then will I be told my ride and where to meet. The show will also shed some light on Sir Michael's Ebor contenders."
